

APEX INITIATES ACQUISITION OF LEADING EUROPEAN TUNNELLING CONSULTANCY

In a deal initiated by Apex Corporate Finance (“Apex”), a global Infrastructure and Engineering Consultancy has acquired a leading European Tunnelling Consultancy.

Apex’s relationship with this acquisitive group developed after selling it an energy consultancy several years ago and we were approached to assist in identifying and facilitating an acquisition of a suitable target in the Tunnelling market. Strategically our client was keen to develop their capabilities in this area as they saw significant opportunities to leverage the service offering into their impressive international client base.
