APEX INITIATES ACQUISITION OF LEADING SINGAPORE BUSINESS FOR MAJOR WEALTH STRUCTURING AND CORPORATE SERVICES GROUP

Apex Corporate Finance is pleased to announce that it has initiated the off market acquisition of a leading Singapore based corporate services business, for its major wealth structuring and corporate services client.

The target is a successful corporate services business based in Singapore, providing company secretarial, accountancy, business support and immigration services. The business has over 1,500 clients and has experienced revenue growth of 30% year on year.

Our client is an award winning, successful and leading independent wealth structuring company specialising in preserving and enhancing wealth. Their clients range from small and large corporates to ultra high net worth individuals. The group operates in Jersey, BVI, Switzerland, UAE, New Zealand and now Singapore.

Paul Warren, MD of Apex commented "This off market acquisition sourced by Apex, significantly expands our client's capabilities in Asia, client base and further extends their service offering. The combined business is well positioned to deliver on their strategy of delivering high quality solutions to customers in their chosen jurisdiction".
